

Help me sell my property fast! – I am in financial difficulty, possibly facing repossession and I need a fast house sale.

Many personal problems are brought on by the threat of repossession.

Worried that you are about to get a repossession order?

If you receive a repossession order then it can be a very difficult process for you to get another mortgage or credit such as bank loans and credit cards which will severely hamper your financial future.

Want to stop the repossession order now?

The best way to avoid it is to sell your home quickly before you have your property repossessed.

This allows you to pay off your mortgage lender and possibly be left with a cash lump sum to do with what they like.

If you use an estate agent to sell your home, by the time it has had an offer placed on it, it will be too late and your home would have been repossessed.

If you sell your home to us you will more than likely be able to avoid repossession and receive enough money to pay back what you owe to your mortgage lender. What is more important, your credit ratings will not suffer. This ensures that you are free to find another home to move into and apply for a new mortgage.

Once the ball starts rolling for home repossession, there is a set period of time that is allocated before a property repossession order is imposed. The home repossession order can be adjourned, in which time you could pay off the arrears and avoid repossession.

We appreciate the fact that you might be experiencing a very hard time with your finances, and this could be because of circumstances that are out of your control. As you probably know only too well, if your home is repossessed, you will to get a mortgage or loan in the future, and this could even affect you when applying for some jobs.

How can we help with home repossession?

Our customer service team can act fast to stop your home from being repossessed. We can compile a deal that will pay off your existing mortgage and any secured loans you might have. As a company, we can offer you;

- A rapid cash sale, enabling you to embark on a new start
- Our ever popular sell and rent back service
- Legal help

We may also be able to consolidate your unsecured debts.

Don't try and sweep it under the carpet, in most cases we can help.

For property repossession help and advice or to simply stop repossession, contact our team today. Our caring and professional approach will help take away the strains that repossession can bring.

Sell your house, contact us today either by email admin@fasthousepurchase.co.uk or complete our online contact form.